A CATALOGUE OF THE LORDS, KNIGHTS, and Gentlemen that have compounded for their Estates.

LONDON,
Printed for Thomas Dring at the signe of the George in Fleetstreet neare Cliffords Inne. 1655.

To those Noble persons that are concern'd, the Stationer humbly dedicates the ensuing Pages.

Protesting, that he hath no desire to revive your past misfortunes, or to involve you in newe ones: could he harbour a just fear, this black legend should be more gladly sacrificed to the flames, then offered to the world: He knowes you too Generous, to gather solace from the sufferings of others, or else, to shew you, that your affliction is not solitary, would be a sufficient excuse to patronize this publication. 'Tis a Melancholy thing to reflect upon Crimes, but not alwaies so upon losses, since we may be necessitated to imbrace the last, out of a conscience to evade the first. This book is but an Index to a greater volume, such as have been scourged by the times, use to number many such lashes as these: But 'tis not for us of the lowest sohear, to censure or moderate in those intricate contests, which our home-divisions have engendered, our inconsiderablenesse has redeem'd us from those snaring Enigmaes, those Rocks, upon which the greatest Reasons and Estates have dash'd and perished. you your selves best know your own ingagements: But in (Thesi) this may be received as a sober truth, that he happilie consults his Treasure, who honestly loses, or piously expends it; yea more, every drop of blood that is shed in a good cause, shall Commence a Ruby in heaven.

The meanest of those that serve and honour you,
